The cost of attendance is set out in the Service Level and Schedule of Charges.

- b) fails to comply with the initial requirements of an authorised scheme within the Statutory Time limit; or
- c) notifies the tenant or Relevant Person that the deposit has been protected in a scheme, but the tenant or Relevant Person cannot obtain the scheme's confirmation that the deposit is protected.

1.6 If you do not give us written instructions that you want to make your own arrangements for deposit protection, we will hold deposits relating to your properties under the terms of the Scheme. We must comply with the rules of the Scheme, and this means that we will not be able to act on your instructions with regard to the deposit if those instructions conflict with the Scheme rules.

1.7 The Scheme rules are available to view and download from <http://www.tenancydepositscheme.com/>. A very important point for you to bear in mind is that we must hold the deposit as "Stakeholder". This means that we can only pay money from the deposit if:

- a) both landlord and tenant (and any Relevant Person) agree; or
- b) the Scheme directs us to do so following an adjudication decision; or
- c) a court orders us to do so.

2 During the tenancy

2.1 We will hold the deposit as Stakeholder in the Franchisor's TPFG client account (separate from the money we use to run our business).

2.2 The deposit shall not accrue any interest to the landlord or tenant during the tenancy.

2.3 If the Scheme directs us to send the deposit to them, we must do that within 10 days of receiving their direction. The Scheme will not normally direct us to send them the deposit unless there is a dispute about how it is to be paid at the end of the tenancy.

Where there is NO dispute about the deposit at the end of the tenancy

2.4 At the end of an APT we will liaise with you to ascertain what (if any) deductions you propose to make from the deposit, or have already agreed with the tenant.

2.5 Once you and the tenant have agreed how the deposit should be allocated, we will ask you both to confirm your agreement in writing. We will then pay the deposit, without interest, according to what you and the tenant have agreed, within 10 days of receiving confirmation of agreement from you and the tenant(s). We cannot pay until we have the tenant's agreement. If you have joint tenants, all of them must agree.

2.6 Where the tenant does not respond to a proposal made for a deduction from the deposit, this will not infer a dispute.

3 Where there IS a dispute about the deposit at the end of the tenancy

3.1 You must use reasonable efforts to negotiate and reach a sensible resolution to the dispute as soon as practicable after the tenancy ends.

3.2 A tenant can ask us to repay the deposit at any time after the tenancy has ended. You must agree to us releasing promptly any undisputed deposit amount i.e. any part of the deposit that does not need to be held back to cover breaches of the tenancy agreement. We will take your instructions at the time regarding the amount to be withheld.

3.3 If the tenant asks us to repay some or all of the deposit, and we do not do so within 10 days from and including the date of the tenant's request, the tenant can notify the Scheme. The Scheme will then direct us to pay the disputed amount to the Scheme. We have 10 days, from and including the date we receive the Scheme's direction, to send in the money.

3.4 If we protect a deposit with the Scheme on your behalf, you hereby authorise us to pay to the Scheme as much of the deposit as the Scheme requires us to send. We will contact you to keep you informed, but we will not need to seek your further authority to send the money to the Scheme.

3.5 The Scheme will review the tenant's claim and decide whether it is suitable for independent alternative dispute resolution ("ADR"). Usually, this will take the form of adjudication, but it may involve assisted negotiation or mediation. "Alternative" in this context means an alternative to court proceedings. It is intended to be a faster and more cost-effective way of resolving disputes. The Scheme does not make a charge to landlords or tenants for using the ADR service if it relates to an APT.

3.6 If a tenant refers a dispute about a deposit to the Scheme we, if the property is fully managed, and we and you, if the tenancy is anything other than fully managed (and, for the avoidance of doubt, we are holding the deposit), will be invited to accept or contest the claim. We or you must notify the Scheme whether you agree to submit the dispute for ADR within 10 Working Days from (but not including) the date of the Scheme's communication to you. If you do not respond to the Scheme by the deadline, you will be treated as having given your consent to ADR.

3.7 Agents and landlords are permitted to refer a dispute about a deposit to the Scheme. If you or we refer a deposit dispute to the Scheme, the Scheme will contact the tenant to confirm whether the tenant will agree to ADR. If there are joint tenants, all the joint tenants must agree between themselves and appoint one tenant to engage with the Scheme on their behalf. A tenant who does not respond to the Scheme is NOT deemed to consent to ADR. If the tenant (or all joint tenants) do not agree to alternative dispute resolution, and do not agree to the deposit deduction(s) you claim, we will ask your consent to release the deposit via a letter of indemnity or you will need to begin court proceedings if you wish to pursue your claim.

3.8 If the parties agree to adjudication, the adjudicator's decision is final and there is no right of appeal. Further information about adjudication is available free to download from www.tenancydepositscheme.com.

3.9 The Scheme will pay the disputed amount to the person(s) entitled within 10 days beginning on the date the Scheme receives notice of:

- a) an agreement being reached between you and the tenant(s); or
- b) the adjudicator's decision; or
- c) an order from the court that has become final.

3.10 If you order any work to be done at the property before a dispute has been resolved, you do so at your own risk. There is no guarantee, if you incur expense, that a dispute will ultimately be resolved in your favour.

4 Consent to use personal information

4.1 When you agree to use our services, you agree that we may use information you give us, including information about yourself, for the purposes of performing our obligations to you.

4.2 You agree that we may supply such information as is reasonably required to the Scheme. You agree that the Scheme, or the government department responsible for the Scheme, may contact you from time to time to ask you to participate in surveys. If at any time you do not wish the Scheme to contact you for that purpose, you should write to the Scheme as explained in the Scheme Leaflet (see www.tenancydepositscheme.com).

5 Our duty to provide correct and complete information

5.1 When you agree to use our services, you guarantee that all the information you provide to us is complete and correct to the best of your knowledge and belief. You agree to inform us immediately if it comes to your attention that any information was incorrect.

5.2 If we suffer any loss or incur any cost because information you have given us is or was incomplete and/or incorrect, you agree to pay us the amount necessary to put us in the position we would have been in if the information had been complete and correct. This clause does not relieve us of our own obligation to use reasonable skill and care in providing our services to you, or to take reasonable steps to keep our losses and costs to a minimum once we realise that there is a problem.

6 Where the tenancy is not an APT and the rent is £100,000 or less per annum and we are dealing with the deposit on your behalf

6.1 The deposit does not have to be protected by law. However, as the Scheme will make its independent ADR service available to you as our client, we may choose to protect it in the Scheme, in which case you will need to comply with the rules of the Scheme.

7 Where the tenancy is not an APT and we have not protected it in the Scheme pursuant to clause 6.1

7.1 The deposit does not have to be protected by law. The Scheme will, at its discretion, make its independent ADR service available to you as our client, because we are a member of the Scheme.

7.2 If a dispute arises we or you will contact the Scheme. Then:

- a) the Scheme will propose what they consider to be the most effective way of resolving the dispute (assisted negotiation, mediation, adjudication or arbitration);
- b) you, we and the tenants must consent in writing to the proposed method if we all want to proceed (if we don't, the options are to negotiate or litigate);
- c) a fee of £500 plus VAT (£600 inclusive of VAT) (or such other minimum fee as the Scheme may set from time to time) or 10% of the deposit plus VAT (12% of the deposit inclusive of VAT), whichever is the larger amount must be paid; and
- d) the statutory rights of either you or the tenant to take legal action through the County Court remain unaffected

7.3 The Scheme will not start the dispute resolution process until all parties have agreed in writing to use the Scheme and paid the applicable fee to the Scheme.

8 Where you instruct us that you do not want us to protect an APT deposit

8.1 If the deposit relates to an APT and you decide to hold the deposit yourself, you must tell us before the tenancy agreement is signed. If we receive the deposit by mistake, we will notify you of the date we receive the deposit and aim to transfer the deposit to you within 5 days of receiving it. By law you must protect the deposit with an authorised tenancy deposit protection scheme (we recommend using the Scheme) within 30 calendar days of the date it is received from the tenant (whether received by us or by you). You must also give the tenant(s) and any Relevant Person 'prescribed information' about the deposit. If you do not do both these things within 30 days of the date the deposit is received from the tenant (whether received by us or by you), the tenant or any Relevant Person can take legal action against you. The court can make an order stating that you must pay the deposit back to the tenant, or lodge it with the Scheme. The court may then also order you to pay compensation to the tenant of between one and three times the amount of the deposit.

8.2 By law, you must serve the prescribed information in relation to the tenancy deposit before seeking possession of the property. Where you have not complied with the initial requirements of an authorised tenancy deposit protection scheme, you will be unable to serve a valid notice seeking possession until the deposit (or any agreed balance of it) has been returned to the tenant, or any court proceedings relating to the return of the deposit have been concluded.

8.3 If you instruct us that you do not want us to protect an APT deposit, we shall not be liable to you for any loss suffered or cost incurred if you fail to comply with your obligations to protect the deposit and give prescribed information. You must pay us for any loss or inconvenience suffered or cost incurred by us if you fail to comply with those obligations. This clause will not apply if the reason for your failure is because we failed to send you the deposit within 20 days of receiving it.

9 Joint Landlords

9.1 If there is more than one landlord, any of you will be able to participate in ADR. TDS does not accept liability to any one or more joint landlords for acting on the instructions of any other joint landlord. TDS does not accept directions from joint landlords to deal only with instructions agreed unanimously by joint landlords. If you want all decisions to be made jointly, this is something that should be agreed between the landlords. It will then be a matter for the landlords to resolve among themselves if one or more of them have not complied with that agreement.

Schedule 2 – DRAFT Rent Guarantee Acknowledgement of Interest

Acknowledgement of Interest

This document acknowledges that you have 'interest in' the Agents Rent Guarantee policy. The key details of this policy are:

Policy holder:

Property:

Policy start date:

Policy term:

Monthly rent:

Please check that this information is correct and contact Martin & Co Newark directly if any changes are needed. If you need large print, audio, or braille versions of this document, please contact us.

What does it mean to have an "Interest In" the Rental Guarantee policy?

Your letting agent has taken out a policy with HomeLet which provides cover in certain circumstances, such as the tenant's failure to pay the rent. The policy holder is your letting agent and you have not purchased an insurance policy with us.

You have an "interest in" this policy. This means that your agreement is with the letting agent for their management services, but you may indirectly benefit from the letting agent's policy with Martin & Co Newark, in certain circumstances. It also means that you may complain directly to Martin & Co Newark, and to the Financial Ombudsman Service, where your complaint relates to Martin & Co Newark's actions. Any complaints that relate to your letting agent, must be made directly to them.

The policy allows Martin & Co Newark to make a claim for specific events, as set out in, and subject to, the terms and conditions of the policy. If the tenant falls into arrears and/or fails to vacate the property, your letting agent can make a claim on their policy and, if it is successful, you may indirectly benefit from the claim, via your agreement with the letting agent. However, your "interest in" the policy does not confer any direct policy rights. If cover is cancelled or not renewed by the letting agent, your interest in this policy will cease. We will contact you when a new policy is purchased, amended, renewed, voided or cancelled. Please note:

- (i) you will only benefit from your letting agent's policy if their claim is successful. For a claim to be successful, all terms and conditions of your letting agent's policy must be complied with. We have provided below some key terms for your information only. Words shown capitalised throughout this document will be defined within your letting agent's policy wording. We have provided key definitions relating to your interest in the policy.
- (ii) any payment you receive will be up to a maximum amount that is payable to your letting agent.

Conditions:

The following conditions need to be met in order for your letting agent to be able to make a successful claim under their policy. These conditions may already form part of the agreement you have with your letting agent and so if you are unsure, please contact them to discuss. Cover is provided to your letting agent on condition that they ensure compliance with the terms and conditions of the policy. The full terms and conditions are set out in a separate document to the policy holder; your letting agent. This document highlights key terms and conditions that you should be aware of, as you have an interest in your letting agent's policy. However, provision of this documentation does not provide you with any direct rights to the policy your letting agent holds. Our emphasis of these terms as "key" terms does not imply any order of importance, and all terms and conditions of the policy must be complied with.

The Key Terms

1) Event:

One of the following:

- i. Arrears due to the Tenant or any Guarantor, failing to pay all or part of the Rent. ii. occupation of the Property by unknown persons, or persons allowed into occupation by a lawful Tenant but without gaining permission;

1. the costs the letting agent would have had if they had fulfilled the obligations under the Policy, and

The Applied Excess must be agreed by the letting agent before being deducted from claims payments, if this has not been agreed, the claim will not proceed.
